CORAM : D.K. DESHMUKH J.
DATE : 28TH SEPTEMBER 2005
P.C. :-

1. The only request made by the learned counsel appearing for petitioner is that it be clarified that the observations that have been made by the Appeal Court while deciding the appeal should not influence the Court while deciding the Appeal that has been filed by the respondents arising out of orders passed in execution. In my opinion, the request is reasonable and therefore, it is clarified that the observations that have been made by the Appeal Court in the impugned order have been made only for the purpose of deciding the appeal and they shall not influence the Appeal Court while deciding the appeal filed by the respondents against orders passed in execution proceedings. Petition is disposed off.
